

From the City of Milwaukee

Are you worried about paying your mortgage bill?

Do you think you might lose your home?

Have you been asked to refinance your mortgage but think it might be a scam?

There are resources that can help!

- Seek help early — call your lender and explain your situation.
- Call a reputable housing counseling agency — they can help you work with your lender.
- Report unfair practices or possible scams.

Where To Go:

The Homeownership Preservation Foundation Hotline: 1-888-995-HOPE

They provide free counseling 24 hours a day, 7 days a week in English and Spanish. Counselors will link you as appropriate with a local NeighborWorks® America counseling organization or your lender.

Need help working with your lender? You can access advice and/or report unfair practices by calling

The STOPP Hotline (Strategies To Overcome Predatory Practices): (414) 278-9190
